Seibold Security of Florida Donates Bullet Resistant Glass and Furniture for the Center for Great Apes

Donation fills need for Wauchula based chimpanzee and orangutan sanctuary

Tampa, FL – April 6, 2018 – Seibold Security of Florida, a Tampa, FL based single source provider of banking equipment and integrated electronic security systems, today donated bullet resistant glass panels to the Center for Great Apes in Wauchula in southern central Florida. The glass will be used in the housing for the center’s chimpanzee and orangutan population. Additional office furniture was also donated.

“We are delighted to be in a position to help the Center for Great Apes”, stated John Seibold Jr., Co-President of Seibold Security, “the value and service that the center brings to the chimpanzee and orangutan population is something that our entire company can get behind.”

The Center for Great Apes is based in Wauchula, a small rural community in southern central Florida. Starting with 15 acres of beautiful and tropical wooded habitat surrounded by orange groves and away from development, the sanctuary has now grown to over 100 acres and his home to approximately 50 chimpanzees and orangutans.
