Seibold Security of Florida Hires Craig Ryan as Their Newest Service and Installation Field Technician

Long time industry technician brought on to service Seibold's expanding customer base in the financial and commercial security space.

Odessa, FL – September 12, 2018 – Seibold Security of Florida, a Tampa, FL based single source provider of banking equipment and integrated electronic security systems, today announced the hiring of Craig Ryan who will assume a field technician role. Craig will be responsible for all aspects of customer installation, support, and service for both Seibold's financial turnkey banking and commercial security offerings.

"I am thrilled to be part of the Seibold team," stated Ryan, "Seibold Security has quickly ascended into a leadership position since their entry into the Florida banking and security market."

Craig is a seasoned veteran with over 20 years of security-related experience spanning key areas of installation, product support, technical assistance, and all areas of post sales customer relationship management. He is based out of the Tampa Bay area and will service the central Florida region. Craig holds manufacturer certifications with a number of leading industry products. "Craig is a perfect fit for our service organization," said Seibold Security of Florida President John Seibold Jr., "his immense field experience, wealth of industry knowledge, and positive energy will elevate the customer experience when partnering with Seibold."
